David Reddell Criminal Defense

David Reddell takes his client's cases personally. The results speak for themselves. As a prosecutor, Reddell never lost a felony jury trial. Since entering private practice, he has been selected as one of Houston's Top Lawyers by H Texas magazine from 2008–2012 and been featured in Texas Lawyer magazine and The National Law Journal.

Reddell's cases all begin the same way: someone in need of an ally to help them find justice. "I give a voice to those who have no voice, an army to those who have no troops and a winning strategy to those who have no plan."
